A CLIENT'S LAWYER

For David Morowitz, representing clients who have experienced major injuries is personal. Once the victim of a serious accident himself, he understands the pain, suffering and need for prompt, reliable, honest legal representation. Founder of one of Rhode Island's leading personal injury law firms, he focuses on motor vehicle/trucking accidents, construction accidents and medical malpractice. He has obtained more than $50 million in jury verdicts and settlements for his clients.

"I understand the importance of working directly with my clients. I handle every aspect of their cases myself," Morowitz explains. "Those facing the loss of a loved one or a catastrophic injury need prompt, courteous and personalized service. So, I keep my caseload small. I prefer quality over quantity. I fully prepare each case for trial, which helps obtain a fair settlement. I like all of my clients. Working together, we develop a friendly professional relationship. I appreciate clients' phone calls. If I'm unavailable, I call them back ASAP."

RESULTS FROM EXPERIENCE

David Morowitz drove a yellow taxicab in NYC at night to pay for college and law school. He later switched to night school and began his legal career working two years full time as a trial assistant for the Manhattan District Attorney's office. He then spent 10 years as a criminal prosecutor in Miami and Rhode Island. In his 30 years of practice, David Morowitz has been lead attorney in more than 100 jury trial verdicts.
